

Brian Ellison Racing

GDPR OPERATING POLICY DOCUMENT

1. Personal Data Policy

Brian Ellison Racing Limited (Brian Ellison Racing Club is a subsidiary of Brian Ellison Racing Ltd) and is committed to protecting the data and information of our business, clients and members of the public.

Our Privacy Notice, is sent out to those individuals (“data subjects”) for whom we train horses (owners) or individuals who have joined Brian Ellison Racing Club (members). It explains how Brian Ellison Racing uses their personal data for the above. It also sets out our commitment to safeguarding personal information held about individuals. This Privacy Notice can be seen in Appendix 1.

This Policy sets out the obligations of Brian Ellison Racing Limited, a company registered in the United Kingdom under number 5329647, whose registered office is at Stables End Court, Main Street, Market Bosworth, Nuneaton, Warwickshire, CV13 0JN (“the Company”) regarding data protection and rights of clients and business contacts (“data subjects”) in respect of their personal data under EU Regulation 2016/679 General Data Protection Regulations (“GDPR”).

The GDPR defines “personal data” as any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person (a “data subject”). An identifiable natural person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier, or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural, or social identity of that natural person.

This Policy sets the Company’s obligation regarding the collection, processing, transfer, storage, and disposal of personal data. The procedures and principles set out herein must be followed at all times by the Company, its employees, agents, contractors, or other parties working on behalf of the Company.

The Company is committed not only to the letter of the law, but also to the spirit of the law and places high importance on the correct, lawful, and fair handling of all personal data, respecting the legal rights, privacy, and trust of all individuals with whom it deals.

2. The Data Protection Principles

This Policy aims to ensure the Company’s compliance with the GDPR. The GDPR sets out the following principles with which any party handling personal data must comply. All personal data must be:

- 2.1. Processed lawfully, fairly, and in a transparent manner in relation to the data subject.
- 2.2. Collected for specified, explicit, and legitimate purposes and not further processed in a manner that is incompatible with those purposes. Further processing for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes shall not be considered to be incompatible with the initial purposes.
- 2.3. Adequate, relevant, and limited to what is necessary in relation to the purposes for which it is processed.
- 2.4. Accurate and, where necessary, kept up to date. Every reasonable step is taken to ensure that personal data that is inaccurate is erased or rectified without delay.
- 2.5. Kept in a form which permits identification of data subjects for no longer than is necessary for the purposes for which the personal data is processed, in order to safeguard the rights and freedoms of the data subject. Personal data may be stored for longer periods, which is discussed in Part 14.
- 2.6. Processed in a manner that ensures appropriate security of the personal data, including protection against unauthorised or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction, or damage, using appropriate technical or organisational measures.

3. The Rights of Data Subjects

The GDPR sets out the following rights applicable to data subjects (please refer to the parts of this policy indicated for further details):

- 3.1. The right to be informed (Part 12);
- 3.2. The right of access (Part 16);
- 3.3. The right of rectification (Part 13);
- 3.4. The right to erasure (also known as the 'right to be forgotten') (Part 14);
- 3.5. The right to restrict processing (Part 15);
- 3.6. The right to data portability (Part 18);
- 3.7. The right to object (Part 19); and

4. Lawful, Fair and Transparent Data Processing

4.1. The GDPR seeks to ensure that personal data is processed lawfully, fairly, and transparently, without adversely affecting the rights of the data subjects. The GDPR states that processing of personal data shall be lawful if at least one of the following applies:

4.1.1. The data subject has given consent to the processing of their personal data for more than one or more specific purposes;

4.1.2. The processing is necessary for the performance of a contract to which the data subject is a party, or in order to take steps at the request of the data subject prior to entering into a contract with them;

4.1.3. The processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the data controller is subject;

4.1.4. The processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of the data subject or of another natural person;

4.1.5. The processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the data controller; or

4.1.6. The processing is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by the data controller or by a third party, except where such interests are overridden by the fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subject which require protection of personal data, in particular where the data subject is a child.

4.2. If the personal data in question is “special category data” (also known as “sensitive personal data”), for example, data concerning the data subject’s race, ethnicity, politics, religion, trade union membership, genetics, biometrics, health, sex life, sexual orientation, at least one of the following conditions must be met:

4.2.1. The data subject has given their explicit consent to the processing of such data for one or more specified purposes (unless EU or EU Member State law prohibits them from doing so);

4.2.2. The processing is necessary for the purpose of carrying out the obligations and exercising specific rights of the data controller or of the data subject in the field of employment, social security, and social protection law (insofar as it is authorised by EU or EU Member State law or a collective agreement pursuant to EU Member State law which provides for appropriate safeguards for the fundamental rights and interests of the data subject);

- 4.2.3. The processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of the data subject or of another natural person where the data subject is physically or legally incapable of giving consent;
- 4.2.4. The data controller is a foundation, association, or other non-profit body with a political, philosophical, religious, or trade union aim, and the processing is carried out in the course of its legitimate activities, provided that the processing relates solely to the members or former members of that body or to persons who have regular contact with it in connection with its purposes and that the personal data is not disclosed outside the body without the consent of the data subjects;
- 4.2.5. The processing relates to personal data which is clearly made public by the data subject;
- 4.2.6. The processing is necessary for the conduct of legal claims or whenever courts are acting in their judicial capacity;
- 4.2.7. The processing is necessary for substantial public interest reasons, on the basis of EU or EU Member State law which shall be proportionate to the aim pursued, shall respect the essence of the right to data protection, and shall provide for suitable and specific measures to safeguard the fundamental rights and interests of the data subject;
- 4.2.8. The processing is necessary for the purposes of preventative or occupational medicine, for the assessment of the working capacity of an employee, for medical diagnosis, for the provision of health or social care or treatment, or the management of health or social care systems or services on the basis of EU or EU Member State law or pursuant to a contract with a health professional, subject to the conditions and safeguards referred to in Article 9(3) of the GDPR;
- 4.2.9. The processing is necessary for public interest reasons in the area of public health, for example, protecting against serious cross-border threats to health or ensuring high standards of quality and safety of health care and of medicinal products or medical devices, on the basis of EU or EU Member State law which provides for suitable and specific measures to safeguard the rights and freedoms of the data subject (in particular, professional secrecy); or
- 4.2.10. The processing is necessary for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes, or statistical purposes in accordance with Article 89(1) of the GDPR based on EU or EU Member State law which shall be to respect the essence of the right to data protection, and provide for suitable and specific measures to safeguard the rights and the interests of the data subject.

5. Specified, Explicit, and Legitimate Purposes

5.1. The Company collects and processes the personal data set out in Part 20 of this Policy. This includes:

5.1.1. Personal data collected directly from data subjects;

5.1.2. Personal data collected directly from the Company's clients; and 5.1.3. Personal data obtained from third parties.

5.2. The Company only collects, processes, and holds personal data used for communication, processing of accounts and to comply with BHA regulations.

5.3. Data subjects are kept informed at all times of the purpose or purposes for which the Company uses their personal data. Please refer to Part 12 for more information on keeping data subjects informed.

6. Adequate, Relevant, and Limited Data Processing

6.1. The Company will only collect and process personal data for and to the extent necessary for the specific purpose or purposes of which data subjects have been informed (or will be informed) as under Part 5, above.

7. Accuracy of Data and Keeping Data Up-To-Date

7.1. The Company shall ensure that all personal data collected, processed, and held by it is kept accurate and up-to-date. This includes, but is not limited to, the rectification of personal data at the request of a data subject, as set out in Part 13.

7.2. The accuracy of personal data shall be checked when it is collected and at regular intervals thereafter. If any personal data is found to be inaccurate or out-of-date, all reasonable steps will be taken without delay to amend or erase that data, as appropriate.

8. Data Retention

8.1. The Company shall not keep personal data for any longer than is necessary in light of the purpose or purposes for which that personal data was originally collected, held, and processed.

8.2. When personal data is no longer required, all reasonable steps will be taken to erase or otherwise dispose of it without delay.

8.3. For details of the retention periods for personal data types held by the Company, please refer to Part 14 and also the Company's Data Retention Policy.

9. Secure Processing

9.1. The Company shall ensure that all personal data collected, held, and processed is kept secure and protected against unauthorised or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction, or damage. Further details of the technical and organisational measures which shall be taken are provided in Parts 22 to 26 of this Policy.

10. Accountability and Record-Keeping

10.1. The Company's Data Protection Officer is Claire Ellison (Director), Brian Ellison Racing Limited.

10.2. The Data Protection Officer shall be responsible for overseeing the implementation of this Policy and for monitoring compliance with this Policy, the Company's other data protection-related policies, and with the GDPR and other applicable data protection legislation.

10.3. The Company shall keep written internal records of all personal data collection, holding, and processing, which shall incorporate the following information:

10.3.1. The name and details of the Company, its Data Protection Officer, and any applicable third-party data processors;

10.3.2. The purposes for which the Company collects, holds, and processes personal data;

10.3.3. Details of the categories of personal data collected, held, and processed by the Company, and the categories of data subject to which that personal data relates;

10.3.4. Details of any transfers of personal data to non-EEA countries including all mechanisms and security safeguards;

10.3.5. Details of how long personal data will be retained by the Company (please refer to the Company's Data Retention Policy); and 10.3.6. Detailed descriptions of all technical and organisational measures taken by the Company to ensure the security of personal data.

11. Data Protection Impact Assessments

11.1. The Company shall carry out Data Protection Impact Assessments for any and all new projects and/or new uses of personal data. This includes any new technologies where the processing involved is likely to result in a high risk to the rights and freedoms of data subjects under the GDPR.

11.2. Data Protection Impact Assessments shall be overseen by the Data Protection Officer and shall address the following:

11.2.1. The type(s) of personal data that will be collected, held, and processed;

11.2.2. The purpose(s) for which personal data is to be used;

11.2.3. The Company's objectives;

11.2.4. How personal data is to be used;

11.2.5. The parties (internal and/or external) who are to be consulted;

11.2.6. The necessity and proportionality of the data processing with respect to the purpose(s) for which it is being processed;

11.2.7. Risks posed to data subjects;

11.2.8. Risks posed both within and to the Company; and 11.2.9. Proposed measures to minimise and handle identified risks.

12. Keeping Data Subjects Informed

12.1. The Company shall provide the information set out in Part 12.2 to every data subject. Please see the Privacy Notice in Appendix 1:

12.1.1. Where personal data is collected directly from data subjects, those data subjects will be informed of its purpose at the time of collection;

12.1.2. Where personal data is obtained from a third party, the relevant data subjects will be informed of its purpose:

- 12.1.2.1. if the personal data is used to communicate with the data subject, when the first communication is made; or
- 12.1.2.2. if the personal data is to be transferred to another party, before that transfer is made; or
- 12.1.2.3. as soon as reasonably possible and in any event not more than one month after the personal data is obtained.

12.2. The following information shall be provided:

- 12.2.1. Details of the Company including, but not limited to, the identity of its Data Protection Officer;
- 12.2.2. The purpose(s) for which the personal data is being collected and will be processed (as detailed in Part 20 of this Policy) and the legal basis justifying that collection and processing;
- 12.2.3. Where applicable, the legitimate interests upon which the Company is justifying its collection and processing of the personal data;
- 12.2.4. Where the personal data is not obtained directly from the data subject, the categories of personal data collected and processed;
- 12.2.5. Where the personal data is to be transferred to one or more third parties, details of those parties;
- 12.2.6. Where the personal data is to be transferred to a third party that is located outside of the European Economic Area (the “EEA”), details of that transfer, including but not limited to the safeguards in place (see Part 28 of this Policy for further details);
- 12.2.7. Details of data retention;
- 12.2.8. Details of the data subject’s rights under the GDPR;
- 12.2.9. Details of the data subject’s right to withdraw their consent to the Company’s processing of their personal data at any time;
- 12.2.10. Details of the data subject’s right to complain initially to the Data Protection Office at the Company and also to the Information Commissioner’s Office (the “supervisory authority” under the GDPR);

12.2.11. Where applicable, details of any legal or contractual requirement or obligation necessitating the collection and processing of the personal data and details of any consequences of failing to provide it; and

13. Right to Rectification of Personal Data

13.1. The Company must ensure that inaccurate or incomplete data is erased or rectified. Data subjects have the right to rectification of inaccurate personal data.

13.2. Data subjects have the right to require the Company to rectify any of their personal data that is inaccurate or incomplete.

13.3. The Company shall rectify the personal data in question, and inform the data subject of that rectification, within one month of the data subject informing the Company of the issue. The period can be extended by up to two months in the case of complex requests. If such additional time is required, the data subject shall be informed.

13.4. In the event that any affected personal data has been disclosed to third parties, those parties shall be informed of any rectification that must be made to that personal data.

14. Right to Erasure of Personal Data ('right to be forgotten')

14.1. Data subjects are entitled to request that the Company deletes their personal data if the continued processing of that data is no longer justified or needed for the original purpose.

14.2. General accountancy practice is that the Company keeps records for 6 years after the date our relationship ceases, however this depends on the nature of the data. After that period the information held by the Company will be destroyed unless we are required to keep it for longer due to our regulatory requirements.

14.3. Sage Line 50, Sage Accounts Production, Sage Control Centre, Sage Payroll, Sage Practice Solution are all accountancy packages used by the Company, which stores historical data via back-up files on the Company's server. These back-up files allow the re-processing of data due to errors or changes in information. The Company will hold these backup files for 6 years but will restrict the processing of owners who have left the organisation. Also see Part 15.

- 14.4. Data subjects have the right to request that the Company erases the personal data it holds about them in the following circumstances (see Part 14.1 - 14.3 for the Company's data retention guidelines):
- 14.4.1. It is no longer necessary for the Company to hold that personal data with respect to the purpose(s) for which it was originally collected or processed;
 - 14.4.2. The data subject wishes to withdraw their consent to the Company holding and processing their personal data;
 - 14.4.3. The data subject objects to the Company holding and processing their personal data and there is no overriding legitimate interest to allow the Company to continue doing so. See Part 19 for further details concerning the right to object);
 - 14.4.4. The personal data has been processed unlawfully;
 - 14.4.5. The personal data needs to be erased in order for the Company to comply with a particular legal obligation.
- 14.5. Unless the Company has reasonable grounds to refuse to erase personal data, all requests for erasure shall be complied with, and the data subject informed of the erasure, within one month of receipt of the data subject's request. The period can be extended by up to two months in the case of complex requests. If such additional time is required, the data subject shall be informed.

In the event that any personal data that is to be erased in response to a data subject's request has been disclosed to third parties, those parties shall be informed of the erasure (unless it is impossible or would require disproportionate effort to do so).

15. Right to Restriction of Personal Data Processing

- 15.1. This is a new right created under the GDPR. The data subjects have the right to restrict the processing of personal data.
- 15.2. In certain circumstances in which the relevant personal data either cannot be deleted (must be stored on the systems listed in 14.3 for a period of time) the Company may continue to store the data, but the purposes for which the data can be processed are strictly limited. Also see Part 14.

- 15.3. Data subjects may request that the Company ceases processing the personal data it holds about them. If a data subject makes such a request, the Company shall retain only the amount of personal data concerning that data subject (if any) that is necessary to ensure that the personal data in question is not processed further.
- 15.4. In the event that any affected personal data has been disclosed to third parties, those parties shall be informed of the applicable restrictions on processing it (unless it is impossible or would require disproportionate effort to do so).

16. Right to Access Personal Information

- 16.1. Data subjects have a right to file Subject Access Requests (“SARs”) at any time to find out more about the personal data which the Company holds about them, what it is doing with that personal data, and why.
- 16.2. Data subjects wishing to make a SAR should do using a Subject Access Request Form (“SAR Form”), sending the form to the Company’s Data Protection Officer. A copy of the SAR Form can be requested in writing from The Data Protection Officer at Brian Ellison Racing Limited, Spring Cottage Stables, Langton Road, Norton, Malton, North Yorkshire YO17 9PY Main Street, Market Bosworth, or via email: office@brianellisonracing.co.uk or by telephone: 01653 690004
- 16.3. All completed SAR Forms must be sent to the Company by post or via email. See contact details in 16.2 above.
- 16.4. Responses to SARs shall normally be made within one month of receipt of the SAR Form. However, this may be extended by up to two months if the SAR is complex and/or numerous requests are made. If such additional time is required, the data subject shall be informed.
- 16.5. All SARs received shall be handled by the Company’s Data Protection Officer.
- 16.6. The Company does not charge a fee for the handling of normal SARs.
- 16.7. The Company reserves the right to charge reasonable fees for additional copies of information that has already been supplied to a data subject, and for requests that are manifestly unfounded or excessive, particularly where such requests are repetitive.

17. Right to be Notified of Personal Information Stored and Processed

17.1. In order to ensure that personal data is processed fairly, the Company must provide information to data subjects regarding the collection and processing of their personal data.

17.2. Such information must be provided in a concise, transparent and easily accessible format, using clear and plain language.

17.3. A copy of the Privacy Notice can be seen in Appendix 1.

18. Right to Data Portability

18.1. A new feature of the GDPR is the right to data portability. This permits the data subject to receive a copy of his or her personal data in a commonly used machine-readable format as well as hard copy format.

18.2. The Company processes personal data using automated the systems listed in 14.3 which allows personal information to be given to data subjects in a variety of machine-readable formats.

18.3. To facilitate the right of data portability, the Company shall make available all applicable personal data to data subjects in the following format[s]:

18.3.1. Word;

18.3.2. Excel;

18.3.3. PDF;

18.3.4. Text format;

18.3.5. CSV format; and

18.3.6. Other formats are also available on request.

18.4. Where data subjects have given their consent to the Company to process their personal data in such a manner, or the processing is otherwise required for the performance of a contract between the Company and the data subject, data subjects have the right, under the GDPR, to receive a copy of their personal data and to use it for other purposes (namely transmitting it to other data controllers).

18.5. Where technically feasible, if requested by a data subject, personal data shall be sent directly to the required data controller.

18.6. All requests for copies of personal data shall be complied with within one month of the data subject's request. The period can be extended by up to two months in the case of complex or numerous requests. If such additional time is required, the data subject shall be informed.]

19. Right to Object to Personal Data Processing

19.1. Data subjects have the right to object to the Company processing their personal data based on legitimate interests.

19.2. Where a data subject objects to the Company processing their personal data based on its legitimate interests, the Company shall cease such processing immediately, unless it can be demonstrated that the Company's legitimate grounds for such processing override the data subject's interests, rights, and freedoms, or that the processing is necessary for the conduct of legal claims.

19.3. Where a data subject objects to the Company processing their personal data for direct marketing purposes, the Company shall cease such processing immediately.

20. Personal Data Collected, Held, and Processed

The following personal data is collected, held, and processed by the Company (for details of data retention, please refer to the Company's Data Retention Policy):

Type of Data	Purpose of Data
Name	For identification purposes
Contact Details	To contact clients in order to provide our services
Gender	For identification purposes
VAT details	If required to supply for VAT purposes

21. The obligation to notify relevant third parties

21.1. Where the Company has disclosed personal data to third parties, and the data subject has notified the Company of a rectification, erasure or restriction, the Company is required to inform these third parties of the fact that the data subject has exercised those rights (unless this is impossible or involved disproportionate effort).

21.2. The data subject is entitled to request information about the identities of the third parties to whom his or her personal data has been disclosed.

21.3. The GDPR grants data subjects the right to bring complaints to seek judicial remedies against organisations that have infringed their data protection rights.

22. Data Security - Transferring Personal Data and Communications

The Company shall ensure that the following measures are taken with respect to all communications and other transfers involving personal data:

22.1. Personal data may be transmitted over secure networks only; transmission over unsecured networks is not permitted in any circumstances;

22.2. Personal data may not be transmitted over a wireless network if there is a wired alternative that is reasonably practicable;

22.3. Personal data contained in the body of an email, whether sent or received, should be copied from the body of that email and stored securely.

22.4. Where personal data is to be transferred in hardcopy form it should be passed directly to the recipient using the data subject's address.

23. Data Security - Storage

The Company shall ensure that the following measures are taken with respect to the storage of personal data:

23.1. All electronic copies of personal data should be stored securely using passwords and data encryption;

23.2. All hardcopies of personal data, along with any electronic copies stored on physical, removable media should be stored securely in a locked box, drawer, cabinet, or similar;

23.3. At the end of the working day, all employees must clear their desks and all folders must be locked away in the secure filing cabinet.

23.4. All personal data stored electronically should be backed up regularly with back-ups stored on the Company's server.

- 23.5. Personal data stored on any mobile device (including, but not limited to, laptops, tablets, and smartphones), whether such device belongs to the Company or otherwise, is used, strictly inline with our terms and conditions or trainers agreement, and for no longer than is absolutely necessary; and
- 23.6. No personal data should be transferred to any device personally belonging to an employee and personal data may only be transferred to devices belonging to agents, contractors, or other parties working on behalf of the Company where the party in question has agreed to comply fully with the letter and spirit of this Policy and of the GDPR (which may include demonstrating to the Company that all suitable technical and organisational measures have been taken).

24. Data Security - Disposal

- 24.1. When any personal data is to be erased or otherwise disposed of for any reason (including where copies have been made and are no longer needed), it should be securely deleted and disposed of.
- 24.2. Personal data stored electronically (including any and all backups thereof) shall be deleted securely.
- 24.3. Personal data stored in hardcopy format shall be shredded.
- 24.4. For further information on the deletion and disposal of personal data, please refer to the Company's Data Retention Policy.

25. Data Security - Use of Personal Data

The Company shall ensure that the following measures are taken with respect to the use of personal data:

- 25.1. No personal data may be shared informally and if an employee, agent, sub-contractor, or other party working on behalf of the Company requires access to any personal data that they do not already have access to, such access should be formally requested from the relevant employee at the Company;
- 25.2. Copies of formal requests will be kept as evidence;
- 25.3. No personal data may be transferred to any employees, agents, contractors, or other parties, whether such parties are working on behalf of the Company or not, without authorisation from the relevant employee at the Company;
- 25.4. Personal data must be handled with care at all times and should not be left unattended or on view to unauthorised employees, agents, sub-

- contractors, or other parties at any time;
- 25.5. If personal data is being viewed on a computer screen and the computer in question is to be left unattended for any period of time, the user must lock the computer and screen before leaving it; and
- 25.6. Where personal data held by the Company is used for marketing purposes, it shall be the responsibility of the Company to ensure that the appropriate consent is obtained and that no data subjects have opted out, whether directly or via a third-party service.

26.Data Security - IT Security

- 26.1. The Company shall ensure that the following measures are taken with respect to IT and information security:
- 26.1.1. All passwords used to protect personal data should be changed regularly and should not use words or phrases that can be easily guessed or otherwise compromised. All passwords must contain a combination of uppercase and lowercase letters, numbers, and symbols. All software used by the Company is designed to require such passwords;
- 26.1.2. Under no circumstances should any passwords be written down or shared between any employees, agents, contractors, or other parties working on behalf of the Company, irrespective of seniority or department;
- 26.1.3. If a password is forgotten, it must be reset using the applicable method;
- 26.1.4. All software shall be kept up-to-date. Software and security-related updates made available by the publisher or manufacturer must be updated as soon as reasonably and practically possible; and
- 26.1.5. No software may be installed on any Company-owned computer or device without the prior approval.
- 26.2. The Company's IT security will be reviewed on a regular basis.

27. Organisational Measures

- 27.1. The Company shall ensure that the following measures are taken with respect to the collection, holding, and processing of personal data:

- 27.1.1. All employees, agents, contractors, or other parties working on behalf of the Company shall be made fully aware of both their individual responsibilities and the Company's responsibilities under the GDPR;
- 27.1.2. Only employees, agents, sub-contractors, or other parties working on behalf of the Company that need access to, and use of, personal data in order to carry out their assigned duties correctly shall have access to personal data held by the Company;
- 27.1.3. All employees, agents, contractors, or other parties working on behalf of the Company handling personal data will be appropriately trained to do so;
- 27.1.4. All employees, agents, contractors, or other parties working on behalf of the Company handling personal data will be appropriately supervised;
- 27.1.5. All employees, agents, contractors, or other parties working on behalf of the Company handling personal data shall be required and encouraged to exercise care, caution, and discretion when discussing work-related matters that relate to personal data;
- 27.1.6. Methods of collecting, holding, and processing personal data shall be regularly evaluated and reviewed;
- 27.1.7. All personal data held by the Company shall be reviewed periodically, as set out in the Company's Data Retention Policy;
- 27.1.8. The performance of those employees, agents, contractors, or other parties working on behalf of the Company handling personal data shall be regularly evaluated and reviewed;
- 27.1.9. All employees, agents, contractors, or other parties working on behalf of the Company handling personal data will be bound to do so in accordance with the principles of the GDPR and this Policy by contract;
- 27.1.10. All agents, contractors, or other parties working on behalf of the Company handling personal data must ensure that any and all of their employees who are involved in the processing of personal data are held to the same conditions as those relevant employees of the Company arising out of this Policy and the GDPR; and
- 27.1.11. Where any agent, contractor or other party working on behalf of the Company handling personal data fails in their obligations under this Policy that party shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company against any costs, liability, damages, loss, claims or proceedings which may arise out of that failure.

28. Transferring Personal Data to a Country Outside the EEA

- 28.1. Transfers of personal data to “third countries” (i.e. outside of the European Economic Area (EEA) is restricted under the GDPR. The GDPR makes it clear that it is not lawful to transfer personal data outside the EEA in response to a legal requirement from a third country, unless the requirement is based on an international agreement or one of the other grounds for transfer applies.
- 28.2. The Company may in the future transfer (‘transfer’ includes making available remotely) personal data to countries outside of the EEA.
- 28.3. The transfer of personal data to a country outside of the EEA shall take place only if one or more of the following applies:
 - 28.3.1. The transfer is to a country, territory, or one or more specific sectors in that country (or an international organisation), that the European Commission has determined ensures an adequate level of protection for personal data;
 - 28.3.2. The transfer is to a country (or international organisation) which provides appropriate safeguards in the form of a legally binding agreement between public authorities or bodies; binding corporate rules; standard data protection clauses adopted by the European Commission; compliance with an approved code of conduct approved by a supervisory authority (e.g. the Information Commissioner’s Office); certification under an approved certification mechanism (as provided for in the GDPR); contractual clauses agreed and authorised by the competent supervisory authority; or provisions inserted into administrative arrangements between public authorities or bodies authorised by the competent supervisory authority;
 - 28.3.3. The transfer is made with the informed consent of the relevant data subject(s);
 - 28.3.4. The transfer is necessary for the performance of a contract between the data subject and the Company (or for pre-contractual steps taken at the request of the data subject);
 - 28.3.5. The transfer is necessary for important public interest reasons;
 - 28.3.6. The transfer is necessary for the conduct of legal claims;
 - 28.3.7. The transfer is necessary to protect the vital interests of the data subject or other individuals where the data subject is physically or legally unable to give their consent; or 28.3.8. The transfer is made from a register that, under UK or EU law, is intended to provide information to the public and which is open for access by the public in general or otherwise to those who are able to show a legitimate interest in accessing the register.

29. Data Breach Response and Notification

- 29.1. All personal data breaches must be reported immediately to the Company's Data Protection Officer.
- 29.2. Any data breaches need to be entered onto the Data Breach Incident Report form at whatever level. The Data Protection Officer must then decide whether the incident is serious enough to be reported to the Information Commissioner's Office.
- 29.3. If the data breach is not classified as significant by the Data Protection Officer then the necessary action will be taken to rectify the breach. No notification to the Information Commissioner's Office will be necessary if only insignificant data was affected or subsequent remedial measures are taken to eliminate the risk.
- 29.4. If a personal data breach occurs and that breach is likely to result in a risk to the rights and freedoms of data subjects (e.g. financial loss, breach of confidentiality, discrimination, reputational damage, or other significant social or economic damage), the Data Protection Officer must ensure that the Information Commissioner's Office is informed of the breach without delay, and in any event, within 72 hours after having become aware of it.
- 29.5. In the event that a personal data breach is likely to result in a high risk (that is, a higher risk than that described under Part 29.2) to the rights and freedoms of data subjects, the Data Protection Officer must ensure that all affected data subjects are informed of the breach directly and without undue delay.
- 29.6. Data breach notifications shall include the following information:
 - 29.6.1. The categories and approximate number of data subjects concerned;
 - 29.6.2. The categories and approximate number of personal data records concerned;
 - 29.6.3. The name and contact details of the Company's Data Protection Officer (or other contact point where more information can be obtained);

29.6.4. The likely consequences of the breach;

29.6.5. Details of the measures taken, or proposed to be taken, by the Company to address the breach including, where appropriate, measures to mitigate its possible adverse effects.
